CALVIN TASKER PHOTOGRAPHY GUIDE

FIRST THINGS FIRST

Thank you so much for downloading my guide. Obviously you liked my photography enough to download it as you felt a connection to my work and think I may be the right choice for your special day. That is the biggest compliment I could ever receive! In this handy guide you'll find more information about my photography which will hopefully answer all your questions. If, at the end of reading it all, you feel like we would be a perfect match then please contact me and I'll be mega happy and we can get planning!

ABOUT ME

I'm Calvin – tattoo-covered, oat-milk-flat-white-fuelled, and a total film nerd. My photography is for the wildly in love – the couples who don't care about stiff poses or complicated bullshit. I capture moments that are timeless, natural, and raw – the kind of images that feel as real as you are.

If you want a session of cheesy smiles and ridged staged shots then I may not be the photographer for you. But if you love natural and creative images (I may climb fences or stand on chairs) then I may be your guy!

I want to be more than just another vendor you've hired for an event or to capture your family. During the shoots I'll make you feel relaxed and we'll have some fun. If I'm at your party by the end of the night you'll find me in the middle of the dance floor with you and my camera.

Other things I Love:

Keanu Reeves

Loud music

Paris

Lindsay Lohan films from the early 2000's

elopement

£1500

One price. One offering. Zero packages.

When I'm in, I'm fully in. I'm not leaving after a speech or before a dance - you might want a first dance at 11am or the speeches at midnight. I'm there, not missing a moment of the action. Investment depends on whether you are having an elopement or a wedding, but put simply, if you're celebrating, I'm shooting. In it for the long game. Hands on, all in, I'm invested.

That's what you're paying for. Not just for some photos but also my presence. A good photographer is your partner at the end of the day, witnessing it all, not just the cake but also the crumbs.

With this investment you'll get:

Unlimited pre-wedding consultations via video call.

A pre-wedding couple shoot.

Full day and evening coverage from bridal prep until the partying is in FULL swing.

300+ images edited individually in my signature style, no bulk editing!

Client access only digital gallery containing high resolution files with unrestricted printing and sharing rights.

Travel to any location within the UK at no extra expense.

Getting away to get hitched away from the noise and drama, just the two of you? Add me too and let's capture it all.

UK? Australia? No place is too far.

Elopements aren't about a set schedule – they're about freedom, spontaneity, and celebrating your love your way. Put simply, if you're committing your lives to each other, I'm committed to documenting every second. Hands on, all in, I'm invested.

That's what you're paying for. Not just the photos, but my presence – a witness, a partner, someone there for the quiet in-between moments as much as the big ones.

What you'll get:

Unlimited pre-wedding consultations via video call.

A pre-wedding couple shoot.

Custom day coverage and travel.

Hannah & Daniel

"Calvin was our photographer for our wedding back in August. After our pre wedding photoshoot I knew we had picked the right man for the job. He was so friendly and naturally calming on the day. Everyone at the wedding commented on how hard he worked and how professional he was. Not to mention the quality of the photos, what can I say, these are memories that are going to be living on our mantelpiece forever more."
